COMPLAINT

Civil Action No.

1:23-cv-9980

Plaintiff, GRACIELA DONCOUSE, (“Plaintiff”), by and through her counsel, The Marks Law Firm, P.C., hereby files this Complaint and sues ST DYMPHNAS LLC, a domestic limited liability corporation, and GG EAST VILLAGE LLC, a domestic limited liability company, both registered in the State of New York, (hereinafter collectively “Defendants”), for a) injunctive relief, b) compensatory relief, and c) attorney fees and costs pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 12181, et. Seq., of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”), the New York Human Rights Law (“NYCHRL”), and the New York State Human Rights Law (“NYSHRL”) and alleges:

JURISDICTION AND PARTIES

1. This is an action for declaratory and injunctive relief pursuant to Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12181, et. Seq. This Court is vested with original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §1331 and §1343.

2. Venue is proper in this Court, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(B) in that all events giving rise to this lawsuit occurred in the State of New York.

3. The violative Premises and the events giving rise to this lawsuit is located at 117 Avenue A, New York, NY 10009 (hereinafter “Premises”).

4. Venue is proper in this Court as the premises is located in the State of New York, County of New York.

5. The Defendants, ST DYMPHNAS LLC and GG EAST VILLAGE LLC are each authorized to conduct and are conducting business within the State of New York.

6. Upon information and belief, ST DYMPHNAS LLC is the lessee and/or operator of the real property, and the owner of the improvements where the Premises is located which is the subject of this action. Defendant also maintains and controls the Premises.

7. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12181(7) and 28 C.F.R. §36.104, Defendants' Premises is a place of public accommodation in that it is an establishment which provides goods and services to the public.

8. Upon information and belief, GG EAST VILLAGE LLC is the owner, lessor and/or operator and managing agent of the real property where the Premises is located, which is the subject of this action, which also maintains and controls the Premises.

9. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12181(7) and 28 C.F.R. §36.104, the building and/or Premises which is the subject to this action is a public accommodation covered by the ADA and which must be in compliance therewith.

10. The remedies provided by the NYSHRL against discrimination are not exclusive and state administrative remedies need not be exhausted in connection with suits brought under the Federal Civil Rights Act.

11. At the time of each of Plaintiff's visits to the Premises, and prior to the instant action, Plaintiff was, and still is a resident of the City and State of New York. Plaintiff is a paraplegic, which constitutes a "qualified disability" under the ADA of 1990. Plaintiff uses a wheelchair for mobility.

12. On May 30, 2022, Plaintiff again attempted to enter Defendants' Premises, a well-unique Irish pub which is approximately two miles from her home to try their unique Penne (which includes homemade tomato sauce) along with a cocktail for a late lunch. However, because of the architectural barriers at the entrances of the pub, such as, but not limited to, a step at the entrance of the store along with inaccessible indoor tables, check-out counters and bar areas (including bar tops) that is open and apparent, Plaintiff was denied full and equal access to, and full and equal enjoyment of, the facilities at Defendants' Property.

13. Plaintiff is routinely in the neighborhood, exploring and visiting various unique and trendy restaurants while out doing her errands. Plaintiff goes by the Premises routinely to and from her home and has attempted to enter Defendants' Premises on multiple occasions after May 30, 2022 for lunch hoping the access issues would be remediated, but continues to be denied access each time due to the existence of the same barriers to access, and therefore suffered an injury in fact. Plaintiff is deterred from going to the restaurant based on her knowledge of the barriers to access that exists.

14. Plaintiff intends on immediately returning to the to the Premises to try more of their different selections of Irish homemade style foods, and cocktail once the barriers are removed and the Premises is ADA compliant. Defendants' violations impede upon Plaintiff's, and other similarly situated disabled individuals' right to travel free of discrimination.

COUNT I - VIOLATIONS OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

15. The ADA prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability. The Act guarantees reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities to ensure they are not the subject of discrimination.

16. The ADA and 2004 ADA/ABA Accessibility Guidelines for Buildings and Facilities (36 CFR Part 1191, Appendices B and C) along with 28 CFR Part 36, Subpart D, the New Construction and Alterations portion of Title III (all hereinafter referred to as the “2010 Standards” or “Accessibility Standards”) dictate that property owners and operators of commercial premises being used as “commercial establishments” are responsible for complying with these Federal Accessibility Standards.

17. The Plaintiff is informed and believes, and therefore alleges that the Premises has begun operations and/or undergone substantial remodeling, repairs and/or alterations since January 26, 1990.

18. Defendants have discriminated, and continue to discriminate, against the Plaintiff, and others that are similarly situated, by denying full and equal access to and full and equal enjoyment of goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and/or accommodations at Defendants’ Premises, in violation of these Accessibility Standards.

19. The Plaintiff has been unable to, and continues to be unable to, enjoy full and equal safe access to, and the benefits of, all the accommodations and services offered at Defendants’ Premises.

20. Plaintiff visited Defendants’ Premises with the intention of utilizing Defendants’ facilities, but was denied access to the Premises, and therefore suffered an injury in fact. In addition, Plaintiff continues to reside in New York and continues to desire to visit the Premises in the future, but will suffer future harm in that she is unable to access the Premises and continues to be discriminated against due to the architectural barriers which remain at the Premises, all in violation of the ADA, and New York State and City Human Rights Law.

21. Pursuant to the mandates of 42 U.S.C. §12134(a), On July 26, 1991, the Department of Justice, Office of Attorney General, promulgated Federal Regulations to implement the requirements of the ADA, known as the American with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines (hereinafter “ADAAG”), 28 C.F.R. Part 36, under which said Department may obtain civil penalties of up to $55,000 for the first violation and $110,000 for any subsequent violation.

22. The Defendants’ Premises is in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12181 et. Seq., ADA and the 2010 Standards, and is discriminating against the Plaintiff as a result of inter alia the following specific violations:

- a. Due to the step leading to the entrance, the Property lacks an access route from site arrival points such as the public streets and sidewalks to the accessible entrance in violation of section 206.2.1, 206.4.5, 303.2, 303.4, 404, 405 or 406, of the 2010 ADAAG standards.
- b. As not all entrances comply with section 404 of the 2010 ADAAG Standards, entrances that do comply with section 404 of the 2010 ADAAG Standards are required to have signage identified by the International Symbol of Accessibility indicating an accessible entrance, however, no such signage exists on the Property in violation of section 216.6 of the 2010 ADAAG Standards. Moreover, there is a lack of directional signage indicating the location of a nearest accessible entrance.
- c. Inside, the bar is lacks any portion that is accessible (a maximum height of 34 inches from the finished floor) in violation of section 902.3 of the 2010 ADAAG standards. That is all portions of the bar exceed 34 inches in height from the finished floor.

- d. There is a failure to provide at least 5% but not less than one accessible dining surface in violation of section 226.1 of 2010 ADAAG Standards where seating is offered.
- e. Failure to provide dining tables with appropriate toe and knee clearance in violation of 306.2 and 306.3 of 2010 ADAAG Standards.
- f. Failure to provide at least one of each type of sales counter and/or service counter complying with section 904.4 of 2010 ADAAG Standards in violation of section 227.3 of 2010 ADAAG Standards.
- g. Failure to provide an accessible restroom with sufficient space, grab bars, or accessible features.
- h. Defendants fail to adhere to a policy, practice and procedure to ensure that all facilities are readily accessible to and usable by disabled individuals.

23. Upon information and belief, there are other current violations of, inter alia, the ADA at Defendants' Premises, and only once a full inspection is done can all said violations be identified.

24. To date, the architectural barriers and other violations of the ADA still exist, the removal of which is readily achievable and have not been remedied or altered in such a way as to effectuate compliance with the provisions of the ADA or to create access to the Premises.

25. Pursuant to ADA, 42 U.S.C. §1201 et. Seq. and the Accessibility Standards, the Defendants were required to make the Premises, a place of public accommodation, accessible to person with disabilities since January 28, 1992. To date, the Defendants have failed to comply with this mandate.

26. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12188, this Court is vested with the authority to grant the Plaintiff injunctive relief; including an order to alter the Premises to make them readily accessible to, and useable by, individuals with disabilities to the extent required by ADA, and order the closing of the Subject Facilities until the requisite modifications are completed.

COUNT II – VIOLATIONS OF THE NEW YORK CITY HUMAN RIGHTS LAW

27. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained hereinabove in paragraphs “1” through “26” inclusive of this Complaint with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length.

28. The New York City Human Rights Law provides:

- a. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any person, being the owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent or employee of any place or provider of public accommodation because of the actual or perceived...disability...of any person, directly or indirectly, to refuse, withhold from or deny to such person any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof...to the effect that any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and or denied to any person on account of...disability...

NYC Admin. Code §8-107(4)(a).

29. Defendants are in violation of the New York City Human Rights Law by denying the Plaintiff full and safe access to all of the benefits, accommodations and services of the Premises.

30. The Defendants’ unlawful discriminatory conduct constitutes willful and wanton violations of the Administrative Code for which Plaintiff is entitled to an award of punitive damages. Admin. Code §8-502.

COUNT III – VIOLATIONS OF THE NEW YORK STATE HUMAN RIGHTS LAW

31. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained hereinabove in paragraphs “1” through “30” inclusive of this Complaint with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length.

32. The New York State Human Rights Law provides:

- a. It shall be unlawful discriminatory practice for any person, being the owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent, or employee of any place of public accommodation...because of the...disability...of any person, directly, or indirectly, to refuse, withhold from or deny to such person any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges thereof...to the effect that any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of any such place shall be refused, withheld from or denied to any person on account of...disability...

NYS Exec. Law §296 (2)(a).

33. Defendants’ Premises is a place of public accommodation as defined in the New York State Human Right Law.

34. The Defendants have further violated the New York State Human Rights Law by being in violation of the rights provided under the ADA.

35. Defendants are in violation of the New York State Human Rights law by denying the Plaintiff full and safe access to all of the benefits, accommodations and services of the Premises.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

36. The Plaintiff demands compensatory damages in an amount to be determined by proof, including all applicable statutory damages and fines, for violations of their civil rights under New York State Human Rights Law and City Law, including compensatory damages contemplated by §297(4)(c).

37. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12188, this Court is vested with the authority to grant the Plaintiff's injunctive relief; including an order to alter the Premises to make them readily accessible to, and useable by, individuals with disabilities to the extent required by the ADA, the New York City Human Rights Law, and the New York State Human Rights law, and closing the Subject Facilities until the requisite modifications are completed.

38. Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs of suit as provided by state and federal law;

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff hereby demands judgment against the Defendants joint and severally and requests the following injunctive and declaratory relief:

- a. The Court declares the Premises owned, operated, leased, controlled, and/or administered by the Defendants are in violation of the ADA, the New York City Human Rights Law, and of the New York State Human Rights Law;
- b. The Court enter an Order requiring the Defendants to alter their facilities and amenities to make them accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities to the full extent required by Title III of the ADA and by NYCHRL, and the NYSHRL;

- c. The Court enter an order directing the Defendants to evaluate and neutralize their policies, practices and procedures toward persons with disabilities, for such reasonable time to as to allow the Defendants to undertake and complete corrective procedures to the Premises;
- d. The Court award compensatory damages, including all applicable statutory damages and fines, to Plaintiff;
- e. The Court award reasonable attorney fees, all costs (including but not limited to court costs, expert fees, etc.) and other expenses of suit to the Plaintiff; and
- f. The Court award such other and further relief as this Court deems necessary, just and proper.
